Important Reminder for Volunteers—Ensure Your Working With Children Check (WWCC) is Up-to-Date

We remind you of the importance of maintaining a current Working With Children Check (WWCC).

It is imperative that all volunteers ensure their WWCC is up-to-date. This is not only a requirement set forth by our Archdiocese but also a legal obligation. Adherence to these guidelines is essential to maintain a safe and supportive environment for everyone in our community.

As you are aware the WWCC is not solely for those working with children, it also encompasses the protection of vulnerable adults. As such, it is crucial for all volunteers, regardless of their specific role, to have a valid and current check.

We kindly ask you to review the status of your WWCC and renew it if necessary. If you need assistance or have any questions regarding this process, please do not hesitate to contact the parish office.

Thank you for your continued commitment and cooperation.

Greetings from Father Jerald

"I am currently at St. Mary's monastery in Scotland doing my sabbatical refreshment course which is an excellent course. All going well with me. That's good to hear Fr. Toan is settling well. OLOP is a wonderful community that would make anyone feel part of it quickly. I still cherish all the support and encouragement I enjoyed during my time over there. I appreciate parishioners thoughts and compliments. Assuring my prayers. Regards Jerald"

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Gospel

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

This is my body. This is my blood.

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover. And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be oured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.'

After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.
